Vital Information about Your Mental Health Insurance

As your provider, my office will file a claim with your insurance company to help you receive any mental health insurance benefits to which you are entitled. Benefit plans can vary from company to company and can even change within the same company over time. Thus, it is important for you to investigate benefits by calling your insurance company before your first scheduled visit. Insurance companies often base the amounts that they will pay toward your treatment on restricted fee schedules related to premium payments and geographical location. In other words, your insurance plan will pay me a set allowed amount for each visit, regardless of what my customary fee may be. There are often set limitations in terms of a maximum number of visits to a mental health provider per calendar year. Deductibles and co-payments are typically built into most plans and state law strictly regulates their required payment. Both my office, and you as the policy beneficiary, can be prosecuted if deductibles and co-payments are not collected. Your Employee Benefits Director can usually help you become familiar with your plan and its' restrictions, and my office will do our best to help you with maximizing your benefits.

My responsibilities to you include:

1. Complete your insurance claim forms and submit them to your carrier.
2. Accept any direct payment from your carrier and keep track of balances.
3. Notify you with a monthly billing statement of any remaining balances that may be your responsibility to pay.
4. My office will help to facilitate claims payment, but we do not have the ability to make your plan pay.

Your responsibilities to my office include:

1. To know your benefits.
2. To provide my office with up-to-date and necessary information concerning your insurance coverage so that we may correctly file a claim at the time of your first visit and at any time changes to your insurance coverage occur.
3. To pay any account balance promptly, including but not limited to, copay's, co-insurance, and deductibles not paid by insurance.
4. Some insurance companies pay their benefits to subscribers rather than the provider. If you are paid by your insurance company for any benefits, we ask that you notify the office so that we can make necessary adjustments and correctly bill you for the amount due.

Thank you for choosing my office to provide your care. Please sign this form below acknowledging the responsibilities listed above. My office will keep one copy in your chart and will give you one copy for your own records.

TERMS OF SERVICE / DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I am pleased that you have selected me as your psychologist. This document is designed to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

CONFIDENTIALITY AND PRIVACY:

As your psychologist, I will keep confidential anything you say to me, with a few exceptions as required by law. I am part of a clinical consultation group which meets to facilitate good care. While I may discuss your case with this group, I will not disclose your identifying information.

A copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices is provided in your packet. If you have any questions about this policy, you can discuss them with myself or our Hipaa Privacy Officer in the billing office.

FEES AND PAYMENT:

My rate for a new patient appointment is $280, which includes $260 per 60-minute hour diagnostic evaluation. Ongoing individual counseling services are $200 per 45-minute hour. Couples and family therapy, groups, consultation, training services, and court attendance may be billed at different rates and in accordance with our contracts with your insurance company.

I will bill your insurance company for our sessions and will collect the copay/coinsurance fee from you in full up to the contracted/allowed amount set by your insurance company at the beginning of each session. I will be paid by the insurance company for covered services. You are responsible for determining the specifics of your insurance coverage, as well as procuring relevant paperwork, such as physician referrals, as your insurer may require.

Please note that as the recipient of services, you are responsible for all charges not paid by your insurance company. Payments will be due at the time the insurance company notifies us of any unpaid portion.

All insurance companies require that I diagnose your mental condition before they agree to pay for services. If you ask, I will inform you of the diagnosis I plan to render before I submit it to your insurance carrier.

CANCELLATIONS:

In the event that you are unable to keep an appointment, you must notify me 48 hours in advance (unless there is a reasonable emergency). If I do not receive such notice, you will be responsible for paying the full $260 fee for the missed session. Your insurance company will not pay for missed sessions.

If you need to cancel or reschedule you can leave a message on my voice mail at (360) 255-2505, Ext. 106. Also, please remember to leave your home and work phone numbers with every message so that I can get back to you even if I am not in the office.

OUR RELATIONSHIP:

It is important for you to realize we have a professional relationship rather than a personal one. Professional ethics require that our contact be limited to the paid sessions you have with me. Please do not invite me to social gatherings, offer gifts, or ask me to relate to you in any way other than in the professional context of our counseling sessions. You will be best served if our relationship stays strictly professional and if our sessions concentrate exclusively on your concerns.

EMERGENCIES:

If there is an emergency between sessions, I can be reached by phone at (360) 255-2505, Ext. 106. I would like to keep phone conversations as brief as possible, as it is normally not an appropriate method of conducting psychotherapy. If a contact of more than 10 minutes is necessary, you may be charged at my usual hourly rate.

If you are unable to reach me when you feel the need for emergency help after hours you may call the Pacific Harbor 24-hour answering service at (360) 714-6520 and they will attempt to reach me directly. There is no charge for on-call contacts less than 10 minutes; for calls over 10 minutes you may be charged at the usual hourly rate.

Other after-hours alternative options include 24 hour Crisis Line: 1-800-584-3578, or, in the case of life threatening emergency, please call 911, go to the Emergency Room.

RELATIONSHIP TO PACIFIC HARBOR:

I am an independent private practitioner, working as a partner in Pacific Harbor Psychology, Psychiatry & Psychotherapy, which provides referral and administrative services. The other partners in Pacific Harbor have no supervisory relationship with or standard of care responsibility for my services. All treatment decisions remain with you and me, as the psychologist and client.

COMPLAINTS:

If at any time or for any reason you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. If I am not able to resolve your concern, you may report your complaint to the Examining Board of Psychology, Department of Health, P.O. Box 47869, Olympia WA 98504-7869, ph (360) 236-4928.

Notice of Privacy Practices Regarding Protected Health Information

To our clients: We are required to give this notice to you under the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). This notice describes how psychological/ medical information about you may be used and disclosed, and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

I. Uses and Disclosures for Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

Your Protected Health Information (PHI) is any information about your past, present, or future physical or mental health conditions or treatment, or any other information that could identify you.

By signing this form, you are giving consent for us to disclose your PHI to other Pacific Harbor Psychology, Psychiatry and Psychotherapy therapists and/or other outside entities for the following purposes:

- Treatment: providing, coordinating, or managing your health care and other services related to your health care. An example would be when your therapist consults with another health care provider, such as your family physician.
- Payment: obtaining reimbursement for your healthcare. Examples include when we disclose your PHI to your health insurer to obtain payment for your health care, or to determine your insurance eligibility or coverage.
- Health Care Operations: activities that relate to the performance and operation of our practice. Examples are quality assessment and improvement activities, business-related matters such as audits and administrative services, and clinical peer review.

II. Uses and Disclosures Requiring Authorization

Outside of routine treatment, payment, and health care operations, we will not release your PHI unless you sign an Authorization Form authorizing that specific disclosure.

We would also need to obtain your authorization before releasing your Psychotherapy Notes—notes your therapist has made about your conversations during a private, group, joint, or family counseling session, which may be kept separate from the rest of your medical record. These notes are given a greater degree of protection than other PHI.

We do not release your private health information for marketing or as part of a sale of information. (In situations where that happen, your authorization would be required.)

You may revoke all such authorizations (of PHI and/or Psychotherapy Notes) at any time, provided each revocation is in writing. You may not revoke an authorization to the extent that (1) we have already released information based on that authorization; or (2) if the authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage, and the law provides the insurer the right to contest the claim under the policy.

III. Uses and Disclosures with Neither Consent nor Authorization

We may use or disclose PHI without your consent or authorization in the following circumstances:

- Child Abuse: If your therapist has reasonable cause to believe that a child has been abused or neglected, she/he is required by law to report it to the proper law enforcement authorities.
- Adult and Domestic Abuse: If your therapist has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has been abandoned, abused, financially exploited, sexually or physically assaulted or neglected, she/he must immediately report it to the appropriate authorities.
- Health Oversight: If the State Department of Health subpoenas your therapist or your PHI as part of its investigations, hearings, or proceedings relating to the discipline, issuance, or denial of licensure to therapists, she/he must comply. This could include disclosing your relevant mental health information.
- Judicial or Administrative Proceedings: If you are involved in a court proceeding, we will release information only with the written authorization of you/your legal representative, or a subpoena of which you have been notified, or a court order. (This does not apply when you are being evaluated for a third party or for the court.)
- Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may disclose your mental health information to any person without authorization if we reasonably believe that disclosure will avoid or minimize imminent danger to your health or safety, or the health or safety of any other individual.

- Worker's Compensation: If we are treating you under a worker's compensation claim, we must make all mental health information in our possession that is relevant to the injury available to your employer, your representative, and the Department of Labor and Industries upon their request.

IV. Patient's Rights

- Right to Request Restrictions: You have the right to request restrictions on specific uses and/or disclosures of your PHI. However, we are not required to agree to a restriction you request.
- Right to Receive Confidential Communications by Alternative Means at Alternative Locations: You have the right to request and receive confidential communications of PHI by alternative means and at alternative locations (for example, only calling you at work).
- Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and/or obtain a copy of PHI and Psychotherapy Notes in our mental health and billing records. We may deny your access to PHI under certain circumstances, but in some cases, you may have this decision reviewed.
- Right to Amend: You have the right to request an amendment of PHI for as long as the PHI is maintained in the record. We may deny your request if we believe the original information is accurate.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to receive a list of the disclosures that our office has made of your PHI. Some exceptions do apply.
- Right to opt out of receiving fundraising communications.
- Right to restrict disclosure of your private health information to a health plan when you have paid out of pocket, privately, for the health service.
- Right to be notified if there has been a breach of your protected health information.

V. Therapist's Duties

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your PHI and to provide you with this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI.
- We reserve the right to change the privacy policies and practices described in this Notice. Unless we notify you by mail of changes, we are required to abide by the terms in this Notice.

VI. Complaints

If you have a complaint about the way we have handled your privacy rights, you may contact our Privacy Officer, 801 Samish Way, Bellingham, WA 98229, 360-255-2505 x100.

You may also send a written complaint to the Secretary of the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services. 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, DC 20201 (877) 696-6775.

Communications and Credit Card policy

Contacting Me

When you need to contact your provider for any reason, these are the most secure methods to get in touch in a reasonable amount of time.

- By phone. You may leave messages in my voicemail, which is secure/confidential.
- Through our answering service (for emergency calls that cannot wait until the next business day).

Clinically, I will only use phone to communicate with you. It is important that we be able to communicate and also keep the confidentiality that is vital to our work together.

Response Time

I may not be able to respond to your messages and calls immediately. For voicemails and other messages, you can expect a response during my business hours (weekends are excepted from this timeframe). I may occasionally reply more quickly than business hours; or on weekends, but please be aware that this will not always be possible.

Be aware that there may be times when I am unable to receive or respond to voicemails, and I may not always be available through the answering service (such as when out of cellular range or out of town).

Email or SMS messaging (text)

I do not use email or texting to communicate with patients for any reason, however our credit card payment system and appointment reminder system may offer these options to you.

Please know that any use electronic communications methods, whether secure or non-secure, such as email, texting, online video and possibly other methods, involves various technicians and administrators who maintain these services and may have access to the content of those communications. These accesses are more likely in some cases, than in others and are out of my control.

Of special consideration are work email addresses. If you use your work email for appointment reminders and/or credit card receipts, your employer may access those email communications. There may be similar issues involved in school email or other email accounts associated with organizations you are affiliated with. Additionally, people with access to your computer, mobile phone, and/or other devices may also have access to your email and/or text messages. Please take a moment to contemplate the risks involved if any of these persons were to access the messages our appointment reminder or credit card systems may have sent you.

Credit Card Payments

We are now using Square to process our credit/debit or HSA card transactions. For your convenience, you may pay the fees owed to your practitioner using your credit, debit or HSA via the following methods.

- With your card present in our office
- Online web payment through our website, pacificharbor.org
- Phone call to our staff
- Stored credit cards (for those with payment plans)

Please be aware of the following:

We have a duty to uphold your confidentiality, and thus we wish to make sure that your use of the above payment services is done as securely and privately as possible.

After using Square to pay your fees, you may choose to have that service send you receipts for payment by email or text message. These receipts will indicate our business name, Pacific Office Association and would indicate that you have made a payment, listing your practitioner's name. You may ask us to print a receipt if you do not wish an electronic one.

Before paying by card for your session(s), please think about these questions and take any necessary steps to resolve issues, such as:

- At which email address or phone number have I received these kinds of receipts before?
- Are any of those addresses or phone numbers provided by my employer or school? If so, the employer or school will most likely be able to view the receipts that are sent to you.
- Does the card belong to a spouse, parent or other family member and if so, what email address or phone number will those receipts go to? Would you have an issue if the card owner saw your receipt?
- Are there any other parties with access to these addresses or phone numbers that should not be seeing these receipts? Would there be any danger if such a person discovered them?

In addition to these possible emails or text messages, payments made by credit card will appear on your credit card statement as being made to Pacific Office Association. Please consider who might have access to your statements before making payments by credit card.
